You can only schedule one type of BJCP examination per request with this form. That means a separate request must be made for each of the exam types. Approval for one type does not imply approval to offer the other exam types at the same site at the same time.

Type of exam - check only one of the following

- Beer Judging Examination (tasting)
- Beer Judge Written Proficiency Examination (essay)
- Mead Judging Examination (tasting)

We allow a site to be registered with an open day within the month. However, the BJCP needs the day within the month to be assigned at least four months prior to the actual exam date. When the date is finalized, the date should be communicated to exam\_director@bjcp.org

For Beer Judging Exams and Mead Judging Exams please provide a list of potential proctors for the exam. We require at least two proctors per site and allow up to three proctors. There is room for more potential proctors for cases where the definitive set of proctors is not finalized at the time of application.

Potential Proctor Name	BJCP ID

The Exam Administrator is the person the Exam Director will communicate with to coordinate the examination.

The contact information is displayed as part of the BJCP's online list of scheduled examinations at <http://bjcp.org/exams.php>. This is the contact potential examinees will use if they want additional details about the exam. Most sites simply list a person with an email address and a telephone number. However, there is also the option to provide a URL instead of an email address and telephone number. The contact may be the same person as the administrator but that is not required.
